

Cultural Dimension	Answer	Examples
Individualistic Culture or Collectivist Culture	Collectivist Culture	Concept of "bayanihan," a traditional Filipino practice where community members come together to help a neighbor move their house.
Low Context Or High Context	High Context Culture	In family gatherings, much of the communication happens through shared experiences and non-verbal signals rather than explicit words.
Monochronic Culture or Polychronic Culture	Polychronic Culture	It is common for social gatherings or family events to start later than the scheduled time, reflecting a more relaxed approach to punctuality and multitasking.
Low Certainty Avoidance or High Uncertainty Avoidance Culture	Low Uncertainty Avoidance	The adaptability and resilience shown during natural disasters, like typhoons or earthquakes, highlight a cultural openness to dealing with uncertainty and a pragmatic approach to problem-solving.
Masculine or Feminine Culture	Feminine Culture	Filipino culture tends to be more feminine, emphasizing care, quality of life, and nurturing roles.
Short-Term Orientation Culture or Long-Term Orientation Culture	Long-Term Orientation Culture	Concept of "Filipino culture generally reflects a long-term orientation, valuing perseverance and future rewards. This is evident in the practice of "utang na loob," which is a deep sense of gratitude and obligation to repay favors over the long term," a traditional Filipino practice where community members come together to help a neighbor move their house.